

YES on PROP. 99.

Real Eminent Domain Reform – No Hidden Agendas

We need to act now to PROTECT HOMEOWNERS.

In 2005, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that government can use eminent domain to take a person's home and give it to a private developer. Since then, more than 40 states have reformed their eminent domain laws, but California has failed to act. We need to act now to close this legal loophole created by the Supreme Court decision and to protect California homeowners from abuses of eminent domain.

Prop. 99 is the straightforward solution we need to PROTECT AGAINST EMINENT DOMAIN ABUSES. Prop. 99 provides simple, powerful eminent domain reform.

- Prop. 99 prohibits government from using eminent domain to take a home to transfer it to a private developer.
- Prop. 99 places this vital protection into our state constitution to ensure that the government cannot remove it without a vote of the people.

- Unlike other deceptive proposals, Prop. 99 has NO HIDDEN AGENDAS. Read it for yourself. What you see is what you get. Prop. 99 is straightforward eminent domain reform that protects homeowners now.

Homeowner, community and senior groups have united to support this critical reform.

“As an official proponent of Prop. 99, I urge all Californians to vote YES. Prop. 99 provides urgently needed eminent domain reform to protect homeowners across California.”

– Ken Willis, president, League of California Homeowners

“The League of Women Voters of California has carefully examined Prop. 99. This is a straightforward measure that does what it says: prohibits the seizure of homes for private development projects.”

– Janis R. Hirohama, president, League of Women Voters of California

“Prop. 99 ensures that seniors and other vulnerable citizens are protected from losing their homes to a private developer.”

– Nan Brasmer, president, California Alliance for Retired Americans

ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES: Prop. 99 is the only real eminent domain reform on the ballot.
